Why We Need This Information

Your kind help and assistance will be greatly appreciated. For the good of all travellers with mobility challenges we offer a service whereby users of our website can access quality information about possible hotels, apartments, holiday rentals etc. The user searches our website for a particular destination and is presented with a choice of accessible properties and services which could be suitable to their needs. The better the quality of this information, the more likely the traveller will be able to choose the most suitable accommodation or service for their particular needs. As we are a non-profit charitable organisation, we make no charge or fee for inclusion on our website. We hope that by including your property, we can not only direct our users reliably to your property, but also increase your visibility to travellers with mobility challenges. Very often a reservation for a wheelchair user includes more than five other people within the booking. Thank you.
